

24th RNCI RED NATION INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL 'ON THE ROAD' Santa NM Indian Market Week

TIP SHEET

The City of Santa Fe's Rolls out the Red is Green Carpet during Indian Market week and Spotlights the 24th RNCI Red Nation International Film Festival for Natives in Charge of Their Narrative with the 30th Anniversary of Powwow Highway

All events scheduled take place *Wednesday, August 14 * Thursday, August 15 * Saturday, August 17th*, includes Press Conference, Film Program, The Writers Room Masterclass, and Native Women in FILM #WhyWeWearRED, held at La Fonda on the Plaza, Violet Crown, Hotel Santa Fe.

Schedule is as follows, participants listed will be in attendance

AUGUST:

August 14th

30th Anniversary George Harrison's' Powwow Highway The Contemporary Feature Film that Charge the Native Narrative Forever Cast & Director Reunites

Powwow Highway was filmed in the state of New Mexico and Santa Fe.

Press Conference Natives in Charge of Their Native Narrative August 14th

10:00am - Noon La Fonda on the Plaza

Hosted by La Fonda on the Plaza.

Welcoming Introductions by Honorable Mayor Alan Webber City of Santa Fe and Todd Christensen NM Film Office

In Person

A Martinez | Powwow Highway

Joanelle Romero | Powwow Highway

Gary Farmer | Powwow Highway

Amanda Wyss | Powwow Highway

Denise Harvey | Tribal Council of The Confederated Tribes of Grande Ronde.

Free Event: must R.S.V.P.

Join us as we have an open conversation about Native Narrative, Native Films, and where we go from here with the launching of Netflix and NBC Studio in New Mexico.

The Writers Room Masterclass | The Writers Room Masterclass
Natives in Charge of Their Native Narrative August 14th 5:00pm to 7:00pm
Hosted by Hotel Santa Fe.

In Person

A Martinez | Powwow Highway

Joanelle Romero | Powwow Highway

Todd Christensen | NM Film Office

Free Event: must R.S.V.P.

//// ////

August 15th

Screening Film Program | Red Nation Conversation Series [panel]

August 15th – Violet Crown Cinema

6:00pm Red is Green Carpet | Meet & Greet

7:00pm to 8:45pm | Screening Powwow Highway

9:00pm | Film Panel

30th Anniversary Powwow Highway The Contemporary feature film that Changed the Narrative Forever ... Cast Reunites

Ticketed Event

//// ////

Last August, Native Women in FILM #WhyWeWearRED had its first press conference during Indian Market week-end addressing the Call to Action on lack of Native Women in Film & Television and the direct link to Murdered & Missing Naive Women. The event below is the one year follow up with how far we have come in one year with our partners Congresswoman Deb Haaland and Native Women in Film Media Coalition.

Native Women in FILM

August 17th – 3:00pm to 5:00pm Hotel Santa Fe
Hosted by Hotel Santa Fe

YOUR INVITED TO EXPERIENCE! One of the most important conversations this year! This event will be an inspiring and empowering. “Native Women in FILM #WhyWeWearRED Conversation Series Congresswoman Deb Haaland (NM 1st Congressional District) will be the guest of honor. Joanelle Romero actor, founder of RNCI Red Nation International Film Festival, Native Women in FILM #WhyWeWearRED, Academy of Motion Picture Arts & Sciences, currently the only Native filmmaker to be short-listed for an Oscar.

Welcoming Introduction by Signe Lindell Santa Fe City Councilor at City of Santa Fe.

Moderator Pearl Means – Film producer and Native Women in FILM Board member.

Ticketed Event

//// ////

All four events will be livestreamed on the Red Nation Television Network YouTube Channel; RNIFF Facebook page and broadcast at a later date on Red Nation Television Network www.RedNationTV.com

Tickets and more information on all four events visit:
<https://www.rednationff.com/on-the-road-rniff-santa-fe-nm/>

Benefiting: Red Nation Celebration Institute year-round programs in Santa Fe NM and Los Angeles.

Festival Runs: August 14, 15, and 17 @ La Fonda on the Plaza, Violet Crown, Hotel Santa Fe.

Sponsors: Hotel Santa Fe, Inn of the Mountain Gods, Plaza Cafe, La Fonda, Red Nation Television Network, USC Sol Price of Public Policy, AC Systems.

###

